

The Tower of the Winds Information Grid

Wind Direction

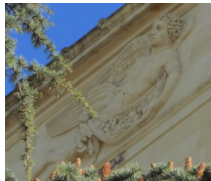

God's Name

Name in Greek

Description

Athens Carvings

Oxford Carvings

	N	NW	W	SW	S	SE	E	NE
	Boreas	Skiron	Zephyrus	Lips	Notus	Euros	Apeliotes	Kaikias
	ΒΟΡΕΑΣ	ΣΚΙΡΩΝ	ΙΕΦΥΡΟΣ	ΛΙΨ	ΝΟΤΟΣ	ΕΥΡΟΣ	ΑΓΗΛΙΩΤΗΣ	ΚΑΙΚΙΑΣ
	A winged old man blowing through a conch shell - this was a strong wind	A bearded man tilting a cauldron full of hot ashes - was this a hot wind?	A youth carrying flowers - this wind was good for farmers	A boy pushing the stern of a ship - this wind was good for sailing ships	A man emptying an urn full of water - this wind bought rain	An old man wrapped tightly in a cloak- this was a cold wind	A young man carrying fruit and grain-this was a harvest wind	A bearded man with a shield full of hail stones- this was a chilly wind

	Click on an image to see a larger version.

Can you locate the missing pictures on the internet? You might come across some images of similar carvings in Berlin

