

Poem Maker Word List

Fill in suitable words to make a wordlist for poem maker to use. When you are ready you can make them into a wordlist as described below.

Title - _____

Noun	adjective	verb	adverb

Making a Poem

Use one word from each column to make a phrase for your poem. This could also form a line of your poem as it is. If you like however you can add more words in.

Making your Poem Maker word list.

Type your words, separated by a comma only, into a plain text file (use the dropdown for 'save as type' and use 'plain text'. The file below shows what it should look like. You can type as many words as you like, but each line must have the same number of words.

Load you file into Poem Maker and get creating!

```

$nounlist="nimbostratus cloud,rain,wind,downpour,rainbow,mist,cumulus cloud,fog";
$verblist="drifts,blows,falls,rains,sparkles,hangs,floats,looms";
$adjectivelist="wet,black,white,soft,bright,thin,heavy,thick";
$adverblist="slowly,quickly,strongly,thickly,brightly,silently,gently,bleakly";

```

Poem Maker

Poem maker is on the ictopus website (<http://www.ictopus.org.uk>) in the activities section. You will need to register, but it is free. There are lots of notes on how to do it.

